

Announcing www.ParkwayJars.com by Parkway

www.ParkwayJars.com gets a face lift

Parkway Plastics, Inc., Piscataway, NJ, The premier plastics packaging manufacturer, was pleased to unveil their new and improved website at www.ParkwayJars.com earlier last month.

April 5, 2004 -- Premier plastics packaging manufacturer Parkway Plastics, Inc. has stepped it up a notch with the introduction of their new website: www.ParkwayJars.com. With enhanced navigation capabilities, "innovative" use of image maps, and comprehensive easy to use information request forms, www.ParkwayJars.com is as easy to use, as it is informative. And soon, in addition to being able to place Sample Requests and view the Price List and Brochure online, customers will be able to search Parkway's product database and even get quotes. Parkway Plastics, Inc. also has plans to add a password-protected "customer profile" section, giving customers the capabilities to save their order details and track their request history.
